Ent 6 X 1952 - 24103

SUBJECT: Irmgard BRUECKNER, nee PETRASCH, born 26 Jan 1918, at DRESDEN, German. 5'6", 130 lbs, gray-green eyes, dark-blond hair, no scars. Married, two (2) children, Anna-Rose born 10 Sept 41 (in DRESDEN), and Wolfgang, born 18 March 1947 (with mother). SUBJECT lives at #2154 Schustaen-Strasse, MINSBACH.

On 9 Nov 50, I overheard a conversation between SUBJECT, the Landrat and Mr. SHERMER. SUBJECT was asking for employment of any nature. During the conversation, SUBJECT hinted that her husband had worked for the CIC and was now a prisoner of the Russians.

On 16 Nov 50, I contacted SUBJECT and obtained the following story:

Husband Erwin BRUECKNER, born 12 Jan 1916 in GRABEN (?), Silesia, 5'9", 160 lbs, dark-brown hair, gray eyes, no scars. He was a staff sergeant in the Luftwaffe 1935-1945. He was in BURG GESCHWINDIG, near QUESDINGBURG, Harz Mountains, from 1943-1945; in November 1945, the BRUECKNER came to DRESDEN. He worked as a Carpenter from 1945-1948. The BRUECKNER were married in 1940 in DRESDEN.

While BRUECKNER was in GERMANY, he met a man named Karl GUSE, approximately 34 years of age. GUSE asked BRUECKNER to go to work for the CIC, collecting intelligence information on German and Russian personalities, in the vicinity of DRESDEN. BRUECKNER accepted this offer, for which he received payment of 100.- marks per month. Every two (2) weeks, GUSE would pick up a report from BRUECKNER, which report was carried by GUSE to BERLIN. On 28 Dec 48, BRUECKNER was arrested by the Criminal Police (no reasons given - no trial was held). BRUECKNER is now supposedly imprisoned in ZWICKAU. SUBJECT showed this Agent a letter written by BRUECKNER on 23 May 1950 from ZWICKAU.

SUBJECT claims that she never did any work of any nature for this organization. In fact, she said that they had senselessly thrown their money away on her. At the end of September this year, GIAHN came to see her and said that they could no longer take care of her. He took her false Kennkarte away and returned her East Zone identification papers. GIAHN told her that she would have to go to GIESSEN, refugee camp. She has papers from there dated 14 Oct 50. She then went to HAMBURG camp, papers dated 16 Oct 50. SUBJECT is now in possession of Kennkarte #BX #B-3Q430, Landratsamt HAMBURG; 16 Oct 50.

She said that all the members of this organization were former Abwehrdienst personnel. She mentioned another man named SCHAEFER, approximately 50 years of age, a former major in the Luftwaffe, being in this organization, and possibly being in MUNICH.
